ARRIVAL

Three stories of daylight at the door.

The rebuilt entry opens into a three-story atrium — a monumental stair, café seating on the rail, and the 500 Park mark in oak and steel.

Elevators sit off a gallery corridor finished in stone and warm wood, renovated top to bottom.

The atrium runs the height of the building's podium; the stair connects the lobby levels and the concourse.

IN THE BUILDING

A hotel, a health club, and lunch — without a coat.

500 Park connects directly to The Westin Chicago Northwest and the Hamilton Lakes Athletic Club: hotel rooms for visitors, conference facilities, restaurants, and a full gym and pool, all reached indoors.

Inside the building itself: a tenant WiFi lounge, restaurants and a sundry shop, decked parking, and a 24-hour manned security station.

The WiFi lounge seats work sessions and one-on-ones off the atrium; the Athletic Club and the Westin are connected to the building.

Twenty-one suites are available today — from a one-office suite to a furnished full floor, ready for move-in.

Every suite is offered turnkey: Hamilton Partners designs and builds the space with its own construction group, on terms set to the deal rather than to a rate card.

Availability as of August 2026 and subject to change. Rental rates are quoted per deal — term, condition and build-out all move the number — so call leasing rather than a rate sheet.

The tenant WiFi lounge off the atrium.

On-site restaurant and sundry shop.
